B37	West	Grace	Here rest in humble trust of a resurrection to glory, the remains of Mrs. Grace West, wife of the Rev'd. Matthew West, formerly Curate-Assistant of this parish. To those who knew her, a recital of her worth is most unnecessary, and to those who knew her not, truth might appear like flattery. Suffice it, then, to say, that she has left behind her a justly disconsolate husband. She was taken from him on the 27th day of June, 1786, after an union of near sixteen years. "Too soon divorced, yet oh ! be calm, my heart,  And bless the dread award that bade us part.  Severely kind the stroke Heav'n's mercy gave,  And wounded deep, because it wish'd to save.  Taught now the emptiness of all below,  In due humility myself to know,  The worm's frail brother, offspring of the dust,  My bliss a bubble, and a reed my trust.  On Thee, great God, then let this soul depend ;  Be Thou the solitary mourner's Friend ;  Thro' life, thro' death, his wand'ring footsteps guide,  And join above whom here Thou didst divide.' Also here lyeth the body of the Rev. Matthew West, Vicar of Clane, who dep't. this life Sep't., the 11th, 1814, in the 66th year of his age.	Clane In the diocese of Kildare. Buried, Mrs. Grace West, at Donnybrook, 29th June, 1786.
